The Porto Rican Postal Service.
San Juan La Correspondencia.

We have well-founded reasons to believe that Mr. W. H. Elliott, director general of the postal service of Porto Rico, is a man of high character and of the highest ability.
We have seen in such a man all that we could wish to be wished for, and that will result exactly as the one which the United States has, which is considered one of the best in the world. Mr. Elliott is a person of profound knowledge in the branch of understanding of the postal service, and who will attend to all the just and reasonable complaints that may come before him. We will soon have a rapid and sure service which will satisfy the most exact. The Correspondencia will congratulate itself very much to have the command of Mr. Elliott, and in offering him its most cordial concurrence to realize the good that will be done by the postal service, always on the side of the good public functionaries, thus complying with a duty of justice.

To Be Taken with Care.
Baltimore American.
A recent advertisement has arisen to advocate the laughter treatment. He sets forth the beneficial psychological and physiological effects of laughter, and claims that many diseases cured by its application. Worse diseases have been advanced, for certainly, whether or not laughter is so great a remedial agent as this theory gravely claims, it is unappreciated that the world is not so easily amused, and that the humorist is not so easily taken in. But if humorists are to be taken in, it is not by the laughter treatment, but by the consequences which might turn out to be tragic.

KING COFFEE.
I have made many inquiries among quite a list of persons who have been using Postum, and always find good accounts where it has been prepared properly. You cannot imagine that point too strongly on the people where they once make a trial of Postum, for it is not thoroughly boiled it has a taste and it drives them away from it, whereas if they only know how delicious it is when well made and how their health would be improved by its use they would do nothing but to insure getting good Postum. I can send you a long list of names of those who really know how to make Postum, and use it every day. If you care for them—D. D. Woodruff, 23 President avenue, Grand Rapids, Mich.

TELLS THE SAME STORY

MRS. GOODIN REPEATS HER TESTI-MONY OF PREVIOUS TRIAL.
Threatened to Faint Again—Said to Close Up Ripple Line Receivership.

The trial of Mrs. Maud Goodin, who is charged with conspiring to injure Dr. Almee Haskinson because of the accusations paid to Haskinson by liverman James Van Natta, is drawing to a close in the criminal court. It is expected that the argument will begin some time to-day.
Yesterday the accused woman was on the witness stand in her own defense. In her direct examination she related practically the same story which she told in the former trial. During the afternoon Attorney Wittels, for the State, conducted sharp cross-examination. At one point in the proceedings it was feared Mrs. Goodin would have another fainting spell. She suddenly rose from her chair and, giving a sharp exclamation, placed her hand on her left side. She tottered toward the table where her attorney sat and Mr. Duncan jumped up to assist her. She did not swoon and was soon able to go on the witness stand again.
The attorneys for the State said last night that they were well pleased with the result of the cross-examination. While nothing of a startling nature was gained the attorneys say that part of Mrs. Goodin's testimony was of an impeaching character.

HE STANDS BY HIS WIFE.
The Family Affairs of the Krenzers Aired in Court.

The suit of Margaretha Krenzer against Joseph Krenzer, Jr., which went to trial yesterday in the Circuit Court, is distinctly a "family affair." The litigation is between mother and son. Mrs. Krenzer is a German woman and speaks English with considerable difficulty. About $500 is involved in the suit.
She is using her son to recover the value of three shares of building and loan stock and also to recover about $500 which she claims he advanced to him prior to his marriage.
Mother and son are bitterly opposed to each other. The young man is a friendly son to his father. Young Krenzer, on the witness stand, said his mother disliked him because she was a Protestant and he was a Catholic. The Krenzers are Roman Catholics, and when the young man married he sought a Protestant German girl. His wife claimed that Mrs. Krenzer had a wife picked out for her son and was much incensed because he did not carry out the plan. The young man testified that his mother had been trying to get him to leave his wife because she is not as strong as the mother-in-law would have her. When the young man was called to the stand he proceeded to tell about family affairs, and being asked. The young man claims his mother made him a present of the building and loan stock, and that he had sold it to another hand, that he obtained possession of it by deception.

To Wind Up Broad Ripple Affairs.
An intervening petition has been filed in the Superior Court in the case of the State Bank of Indiana against the Indianapolis & Broad Ripple Building and Loan Association, which is yet in the hands of a receiver. The petitioner is the State-street Trust Company, of Boston, which asks that the mortgage on the property be foreclosed, and that $500,000 of bonds issued in 1895 be foreclosed.
The mortgage was given to the petitioner and the State-street Trust Company.

It was provided in the mortgage that should the company fail at any time to pay the mortgage, the mortgagee would be at liberty to declare the bonds and interest due and payable at once. The petition is for an order of foreclosure, and for an order of sale of the property, and for an order of sale of the bonds and interest due and payable at once.

Police Court Cases.
Dorcas Githens, charged with grand larceny, and John Staley, charged with receiving stolen goods, were bound over to the grand jury for trial yesterday. The woman has been identified as the one who was with William Dennen, a railroad man from Mattoon, Ill., on April 19, at which time the stolen goods were received. The case against Ebel Worrell, receiving stolen goods, was continued until June 2.
Mrs. Cornelia Eckert, who shot three times at her husband, was bound over to the grand jury for trial. She refused to make any statement regarding her case.

Philip F. Igoe's Bankruptcy Petition.
Philip F. Igoe, secretary of the Louisville Transfer Company, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in Louisville, in which one of his creditors is John Mc-Cutcheon, of this city, who holds notes executed by Igoe for $100,000. The notes are unsecured. The other debtors named in the petition are the Baker-Randolph Lithographing and Engraving Company and Charles S. Baker and Meta C. Baker, of Chicago. The assets given are cash, $100, and a note for $100,000. Igoe claims to be exempt. He states that the stock in the lithographing company is valueless.

To Go Over Till September Term.
The cases against Dr. C. L. Fletcher and Attorney Thomas Coyne will probably not be heard in the Criminal Court before next September. It was the intention of Prosecuting Attorney Fugh to go into the trial of these cases immediately after the conclusion of the trial of the case against Dr. Fletcher, but the trial of the case against Dr. Fletcher was postponed until the trial of the case against Dr. Fletcher, and the trial of the case against Dr. Fletcher will be held on the 15th of September.

As to the Buschman Estate.
The administrators of the estate of Louis P. Buschman have filed a claim with the probate commissioner against the estate of William Buschman. This estate is the estate of Louis P. Buschman, who died in 1898, and was worth $100,000. Louis Busch-man died in 1898, and was worth $100,000.
Louis Buschman died in 1898, and was worth $100,000. Louis Buschman died in 1898, and was worth $100,000. Louis Busch-
man died in 1898, and was worth $100,000.

Exception to Administrator's Report.
In the probate department of the Circuit Court Catharine Sheehan has filed exceptions to the current report of August Kuhn, administrator of the estate of her late husband, John Kuhn, who died in 1898. The contractor engaged in doing public work.
While not charged with fraud, it is being regularly investigated. The court is asked to investigate some of the items in Mr.
Kuhn's last report.

Over Frederick Koepke's Death.
Louisa Koepke, administratrix of the estate of Frederick Koepke, is suing the Citizens' Street-railway Company for $50,000 damages. She avers that Frederick Koepke died on June 2, 1897, was struck by a street car, and was so badly injured that he became deranged. She says that while in a demented condition the result of the accident, he took his own life.
